Medaglia dubbed a 'Good Scout'

Michele Medaglia, president & CEO of ACC Construction, was honored at the 50th Anniversary Construction & Transportation Industry "Good Scout" Award Event to benefit the Greater New York Councils of the Boy Scouts of America.

The luncheon event, held at the Hilton New York, attracted approximately 1,200 people and raised an estimated $800,000.

Following a citation by Jennifer McCool, vice President of development, Moynihan Station Venture, and vice president of the Association of Real Estate Women, Medaglia donned the Boy Scout of America's official hat and red scarf and delivered a moving speech to friends, family and colleagues.

"To be honored in front of so many of my peers and my family for such an important cause, was beyond gratifying," said Medaglia. "I have been a supporter of the Scouts of America for many years and will continue to do everything I can to help young people achieve their goals. The Boy Scouts fulfill an important role in society that reinforces important values, strong character and good citizenship."

The two other honorees for the event were Cheryl McKissack, CEO of The McKissack Group Inc., and James Callahan, president/business manager of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local Union 15, 15A, 15B, 15C & 15D.
